

Tomorrow's Scholar 529 Plan

Making College Possible Through 529 Gifting

... connecting to the future

It takes a whole family (and sometimes many friends) to prepare a child financially for college. Gifting is a popular and effective way for parents, grandparents and others close to the child to bring a college education within reach—while reducing the size of a taxable estate.

529 college savings plans have unique gifting features that can significantly reduce estate and gift taxes, unlike many custodial accounts and other forms of cash and investment gifts.

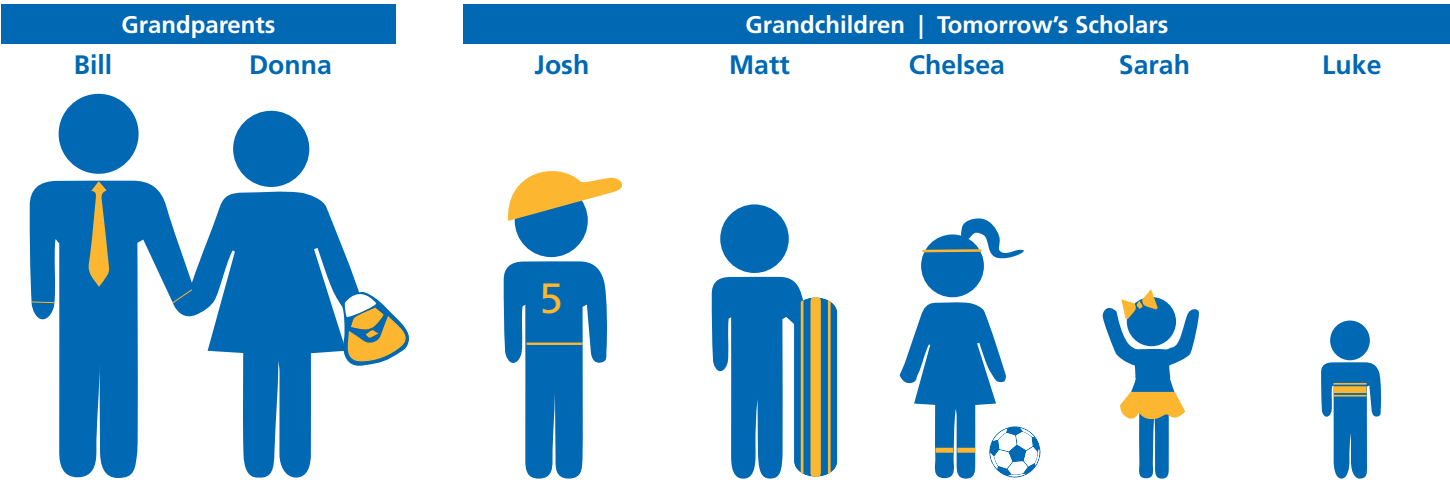

Two Ways to Give the Gift of Education:

1. Annual Gifting allows up to the annual gift tax exclusion of $19,000 ($38,000 if married) per beneficiary.
2. Accelerated Gifting allows a one-time gift of up to $95,000 per beneficiary ($190,000 if married)—this not only boosts the investment earning power, it allows five times the annual gift exclusion without federal gift tax consequences.¹

Accelerated 529 Gifting Can Significantly Reduce a Taxable Estate

Bill and Donna reduced their taxable estate by $950,000 by giving the gift of a college education to their five grandchildren.

Pre-Gift Taxable Estate: $2.0 million

| Gift of Education | Josh | Matt | Chelsea | Sarah | Luke |
|-------------------|-----------|-----------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| | $190,000 | $190,000 | $190,000 | $190,000 | $190,000 |

Post-Gift Taxable Estate: $1.05 million, a reduction of $950,000

¹ Any additional gifts to the same beneficiary in that five-year period would be subject to federal gift tax. In the event the contributor does not survive the five-year period, a pro-rated amount will revert back to the contributor's taxable estate.

Every Gift Helps

Small gifts can be just as important as big gifts. How many times have relatives and friends asked what to give a child for his or her birthday? What better gift than an education? And what better time to give than at birthdays, graduations, holidays, achievements and other special occasions?

- Give regular college savings gifts at birthdays and holidays. Children who grow up expecting a little something towards education have a good chance of learning the value of education.
- Use milestones and achievements to show that you value education. Helping underwrite the high cost of higher education means a lot more in the long run than the latest toys and games.
- Don't wait for birthdays and graduations. Show how proud you are of them on a regular basis.

Online Gifting Platform

Account owners can create a gifting page to share with family and friends to invite them to contribute to a child's long-term education goals. Creating a gifting page is easy. Simply start by selecting your goal and the investment option you would like gifts to be made into. You can then share your gifting page via email or social media. Family and friends can make online gifts into your account via bank draft.
